FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fire Belle inspires design of Ring Farm Corn Maze (Oct. 3-Nov. 2)

SPRING HILL, Tenn. – When Middle Tennesseans wander their way through the popular Ring Farm Corn Maze in Columbia next month, they will be walking in the shape of our very own Fire Belle.

Fire Belle is the 1957 Spring Hill fire truck, long out of commission, adopted last year as a community restoration project through the leadership of Spring Hill City Judge Blair Morgan, Retired U.S. Army Col. and Mrs. Herb Grogan, Alderman Kayce Williams and many other residents and organizations. Project Fire Belle is a Partnership between the Rotary Club of Spring Hill and Thompson's Station.

The truck is being fully restored to its former glory to create a symbol of Spring Hill pride at local festivals, parades and community events.

John and Thelma Ring planted their annual corn maze in the shape of old Fire Belle in support of the restoration project, to which the City's Historic Commission has contributed.

The corn maze will be open Oct. 3 – Nov. 2 from 3 to 9 p.m. Fridays, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturdays, and 2 to 9 p.m. Sundays, at 2628 Greens Mill Road, in Columbia.

A $9 admission includes everything except concessions, the corn cannon, pumpkins, retail items and fire pits. Children ages 2 years and under get in free. Admission is $8 per person for groups of 20 or more. Fire pits are available by reservation for $50. No pets or alcohol are allowed.

To donate funds or services to Project Fire Belle, contact Col. Grogan at hsgrogan@gmail.com or (615) 516-1119.
