

RESOLUTION 13-19

A RESOLUTION TO AUTHORIZE THE TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP OF K-9 DRUG DOG PURCHASED IN 2006 TO HANDLER

WHEREAS, the Spring Hill Police Department purchased a drug dog, "Travis", in 2006;
and

WHEREAS, the handler, Miles Collett, is no longer employed by the Spring Hill Police Department; and

WHEREAS, due to Travis' age, acclimation to a new handler is not feasible;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Spring Hill Police Department requests that ownership of Travis be transferred to Miles Collett, who shall take possession, and assume all responsibility, liability and costs to maintain; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City of Spring Hill authorizes the transfer of ownership of Travis to Miles Collett as stated above.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Spring Hill, Tennessee on the 19th day of February, 2013.

April, as far as the agenda for the PD. I am waiting to discuss with Victor the CRMS, then will know what direction to go.

Agenda for Transferring ownership of K-9 Travis, or Disposal of city property. Travis, canine, was purchased in 2006 to be utilized for drug interdiction. He was assigned to Cpl. Miles Collett, who was the only SHPD K-9 handler of Travis. With the decision to retire Travis, it is recommended that the City of Spring Hill transfer ownership of Travis to Miles Collett, who will then take possession of Travis and will then assume all responsibility, liability, and cost to maintain the canine.
