Why This Is A Win For Our City!

- The Festival showcases local youth sports and extracurricular school programs and activities Spring Hill offers our community through unique hands-on events and competitions designed to provide citywide participation and awareness.
- The Festival directly coordinates the unity of local representation on a grand scale such as the Spring Hill Police Department, Spring Hill Fire Department, Spring Hill Library, City Parks & Recreation, civic groups, independent businesses, the health, wellness and fitness community, local national chains, local sports leagues, local schools and local citizen volunteers all working together to spotlight Spring Hill's active lifestyle opportunities blurring any lines between counties in a unified effort.
- The festival provides an entertaining Summer venue that elevates city pride and connectedness among residents, area businesses and city visitors which in turn fosters a creative and meaningful format to build stronger community bonds and involvement.
- The Festival fundraising agenda helps financially strengthen selected 'local' charities which serve our local community and collaborates fundraising efforts for participating sports leagues, groups and efforts such as Partners4Parks, Fire Belle Restoration Project, South Williamson Athletics, Spring Hill Hawks, Spring Hill Little League, Summit High School Angler team and more.

An Invitation To You

- Attend the festival representing the City of Spring Hill
- Participate in some of the planned competitions and/or events
- Invitation to have a free booth representing the City to provide greet time, showcase upcoming enhancements for the community such as the new Skate Park & Port Royal Park.
- Embrace this event with your support as we help Spring Hill, Maury County and Spring Hill, Williamson County residents realize the resources available to them locally when it comes to participating and supporting local recreation and activities.
